

MILLIONAIRE, 79, CALLED INSANE BY HIS NEPHEW

Dr. B. F. Batchelder Said to Be Ruled by Woman—Court
Orders Inquiry.

Dr. Benjamin F. Batchelder, a wealthy retired dentist, of No. 230 West One Hundred and Fourth street, will be called upon to establish his sanity before a Sheriff's jury.

Justice Truax signed an order to that effect today, naming Edward A. Watson, Dr. Lewis Balch and Albert Sanders as Commissioners to hear the case. To-day's proceedings are the result of a sensational affidavit filed by George B. Banks, a nephew of the dentist. He is the only near relative of Dr. Batchelder, who is seventy-nine years old. The old man's fortune is estimated at $1,000,000.

In his petition Mr. Banks says: "I am informed that Dr. Batchelder is under the influence of a woman who has assumed control over him and his affairs, and is endeavoring to obtain possession of his property and to get his signature to a will, and that by reason of his imbecility I believe she has already obtained possession of some of his property."

The next paragraph may refer to the same or another woman. It says: "Same woman, a stranger to me, has forced herself upon Dr. Batchelder and assumed the management of his financial affairs. She claimed to be his daughter, but admitted that she was only a friend rendering services for which she expects to be paid."

"She has obtained an influence over him and controls him in his weak condition. But during lucid moments he insists she should not be permitted to come near him."

FAMOUS ART DEALER DEAD.
News was received here from London of the death of Sir J. J. Duveen, owner of the famous art collection and dealer. He leaves a fortune of between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000. One of the last honors that came to him was British Knighthood.

INSANE GIRL, AN ACTRESS, DANCES ON "L" PLATFORM

Sadie O'Neill Attracts a Crowd of Over 1,000 People in the Bronx.

A young girl, who said she was Sadie O'Neill, seventeen years old, an actress, of No. 346 East One Hundred and Twentieth street, attracted a crowd of a thousand people on the platform of the One Hundred and Forty-ninth street station of the Third Avenue "L" this morning by a spirited exhibition of Salome dancing, accompanied by wild, incoherent songs.

She was clad in a wine-colored corduroy dress, pink stockings and pink lingerie, and when she danced the stockings and lingerie obliterated the duller hue of the wine-colored suit. She kicked with more agility than grace, and sang with more volume than melody.

When the audience that gathered on the station platform had blocked traffic, the police were appealed to, and Patrolman Vetter, of the Alexander avenue station, led the young girl to the street. Before he had gone very far he had to summon assistance, as she proved a difficult prisoner, still cutting mad capers.

DO YOU KNOW ANY SKIN SUFFERERS?

If You Have a Friend Afflicted With Eczema, Tell the Druggist About It.

If you have a friend suffering from eczema, tell us about it the next time you are in the store.

Many eczema sufferers have tried so many useless remedies and spent so much money with doctors that they practically despair. If they only knew of the simplest home cure for eczema! It is nothing more than oil of wintergreen compound (as mixed in D. D. D. Prescription).

Used with glycerine, tyndol and other healing ingredients in liquid form, this simple remedy penetrates the pores of the skin, numbing and killing the eczema germs while building up the healthy tissue.

If you will suggest to your friend at once to use D. D. D. Prescription, he will be glad to explain to any sufferer about D. D. D. Prescription.

ALVAN T. PAYNE DEAD.

Well Known Lawyer of Queens Passes Away.

Alvan T. Payne, one of the pioneer lawyers of old Long Island City, died suddenly yesterday at his country home at Stony Point, on the Hudson. He was in his sixty-ninth year.

Mr. Payne was born in Southold, Suffolk County, and was a grandson of Capt. Thomas Payne, who served in the Revolution. He was a Democrat in politics, but was frequently identified with the reform movements. He was elected to the Assembly in 1875 on a reform movement. In 1880 he ran for District Attorney of Queens County against Benjamin Downing, but failed of election. Later, when nominated for Surrogate, he was defeated by just one vote by Daniel R. Lyddy. During the term of George F. Peck as Mayor of old Long Island City, Mr. Payne served as corporation counsel. When Patrick J. Gleason was Mayor, Mr. Payne fought the battle of a politician relentlessly. Four sons—Alvan T. Payne and Benjamin H. Payne are lawyers. George E. Payne is in the real estate business and Mr. John Payne survives him together with several daughters and his widow.
